

City of Bloomfield

Greetings!

As Mayor of Bloomfield, thank you for viewing our Web site. We hope you will visit our City and surrounding area to enjoy our many attractions and activities that make Bloomfield a very unique destination. Shaped by a history of pre-historic landscapes, preeminent archeology sites, and exciting cultures, Bloomfield is a small, rural community that will entice you to experience exceptional adventures.

Please view the other sections of our Web site including things to do, economic development, and history. We would love to have you spend time in our City. Please consider Bloomfield as a tourist destination and a reasonably priced, rural, friendly community in which to live and as a site selection for your business. Welcome to our City and please let me know if I may be of assistance.

Sincerely,

Cynthia Atencio